

St. James Cathedral - Hand Carved Wooden Crucifix

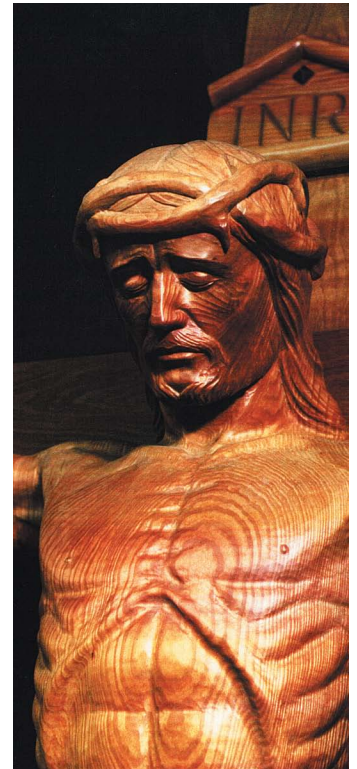

Location Chicago, Illinois
Designer / Architect Soheil Mosun & Ziggy Puchta
Duration 1983

Scope - Soheil Mosun Limited was commissioned to produce a full scale crucifix for St. James Cathedral in Chicago, Illinois, USA.

Highlights - This magnificent life sized (approximately 6') crucifix was hand carved out of lindenwood (commonly known as basswood) over a two month period in 1983. It was installed and resides above the main altar in the St. James Cathedral.

Front View of the 6' Crucifix

Detail of the Hand Carved Lindenwood

Detail of the Intricately Carved Feet.